FOR COVERNOR, JOHN W. DANIEL, OF LYNCHBURG. FOR LIEUTEFANT GOVERNOR, JAMES BARBOUR, OF CULPEPRE. FOR ATTORNEY GENSBAL P. W. McKINNEY, OF FARMVILLE FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES. JUDGE CHARLES B. STUART.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 29.

The Richmond Whig, in its francic efforts to nado the sad mischief caused by those dreading Blair letters, lays great stress upon its assertion that ex Becato: Withers, General Walker, General Terry, and Mr. Blair's brother members of the bar, who are familiar with his hand writing, havn't sworn that Mr. Blair is the author of those letters. The Whig here ovices great ignorance of papular opinion is Virgicia, for it should know that in every and all parts of the State, the word of any of the witnesses named is as good as his bond. But Goneral Walker told Mr. Blair in the presince of witnesses that he would swear that he wrotthe letters. Col. Withers says the is as certain that Blair wrote the letters as he is of his own name, and the lawyers practicing at Mr. Bieit's owa County Court, the Sheriff of that county, and other gentlemen equally as reliable certify over their own names that Mr. Blair did write the letters. The proof that Mr. Blair wrote the letters would convict him in any curt in the world except one presided over by a "Izard" judge, without any oaths, but were sword testimory, necessary, all that would be requisite to obtain it would be for Mr. Blair. to accept Wilson's challenge to bring the case

Gen. Reckner, a distinguished confederate, in his address to the Union soldiers in New York on the day of the late President's funeral, called his hearers comrades. The sentiment thus implied by the General was a fair expression of that entertained by every man, now alive, who was in the confederate army. It was accepted in the spirit in which it was given. But Mr. Gorham says the republican party must "coating business at the old sten I." and General Mahone says "he will vote for George Gerham for Secretary of the Sepate in preference to all other men," though everybody knows what the "old stand" means. Some of the other ultra radical politicians say "it will be dangerous to the presperity and the liberty of the country for Mr. Bayard," a Southern man, though no, an ex Confederate, "to be elected President of the Senate," and Mr. Gorham says "the organization of the Senate by candidate, says he will withdraw in favor of the democrate would be revolution that could be Senate by Mr. Shannon. Mahone will, by his vote, endorsa and approve both of these unfair, sectional, unpatriatic and disingenuous assertions. General Mahone said last year that he was "not only a Southern man and a democrat, but a Virginian," and yet with all this before him and before every man in Virginia, he says he is Nothing was better calculated to keep alive the excitement and anxiety shout the President's assassination, and to induce such statements as that of young Bayly, mentioned in the Washington correspondence of yesterday's Gezattee, and, indeed, to suggest to cracks and criminals the idea of political assassination, than the public advice given by the Cabinet to the President to abandon his intention of attending the funeral of his producers or lise he, too, should be assessmented. Nothing is more certain than the fact that precaution will not prevent assassination, and if the country is to only doubtful country in the 8 h Congressional be kept in a state of constant dread of the violeat death of its President, the presidential office had better by abolished at once. The words political assassination should hereafter be excluded from the American vecabulary.

Captain Hay of the army, who was tried by court martial for cheating his brother officers at cards, has been honorably acquicted, though it was proved that he dealt to "Captain S ille, an inferior hand; to Dr. Rowan, four kinge; to Lieutenant Clagget, four queens; to Lieutenant O'Conner, four jicks; and to himself a straight, or sequence flush, and thereby won a pot of $102. Tast court martial was evidently composed of officers unacquainted with the history of the four Kings, for the knoweldge obtained by a diligent study of that history would have taught them that such hands plainly indicated that the accused had been "a feelin with the

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Correspondence of the Alexa, Gazette Washington, D. C., Sep., 29, 1881. The four of an attempt to rob the grave of the late President is so great at army headquarby an attendant, and the grave of the dead one guarded by saldiers, don't look much like a govcoment by, of and for the people; but this is an illusted and inconsistent age.

Lieur, Phipper, the negro samy lieutenant who availed bires it of the position of acting commissary to rob the government, and who is now being tried by court martial in Taxes, has written a letter here in which, with affrontery equal to that of Whittaker, he asserts that the war le charge against him is the result of the or puller cuttrained by the colonel of the reg-ment netice: his race. Mr. Dingan, one of the lessers of the Alexaudita Cenal, went to Baltimore to day to earado certain arrangements about the purchase of lumber for the repairs of the rea duct of that cansi during the coming winter. The repairs will be emirned almost entirely to the rousk, as all the necessary heavy repairs were made last winter, and those to be made next water will, it is supposed, avoid the processly for making any more, for several years. The canal is well supplied now with water, beats are arriving rapidly, and a brisk business on it is expected to be done during the remainder of the season. Coal freights have advanced recently tencents, being sow nice y and ninety five cents to Georgetown and Alexandria responsely. Many canal men-do not approve of the proposed enlargement of the locks during the approaching winter, and say that the existing capacity of the capal is more than sufficient for the business that will be done on it after the capacity shall have been requisite for two heats will not be double that required for one, it is certain that two bosts can not be propelled by the same force that is sufficent to propal one.

The Ohio election will take place on the 11th proxims. The endersement of the republican ticket by the Lagrer Dealers' Association of Ciscionati, will, it is supposed, redound to the advantage of the democrats. The affiliation of the republicans with the liquor dealers in North Carolina and that of the liquor dealers with the republicans in Cincinnati don't lock as they profess to be. The intelligence from Virginia here to day is to the following effec: The Mahone majority in the last Legislature was only twenty. A demoeratic gain of eleven will overcome it, and more than this gain is already assured. Among the and Hanover. Mr. Shannon will receive the democratic nomination in the district composed of Washington and Smythe counties. The Mahone candidate there is Mr. Bailey, who is so objectionable that Mr. Conrad, a Mahone ora; tor, says he will not speak upon the same s'and with him. Mr. Summers, the independent ers in law, and in one of their discussions the grieved because of the unseem'y contest. When Summers rose to reply be said it was a fact that all the family connection were grieved. Lut it was because Bailey had voted to turn out a one legged Confederate soldier and give his place to a negro. In Bristoi there is a Daniel club with 160 members; at the last election there the whole democratic vote was only 129. A reliable Fairfax county republican, a member of the Society of Priends, in the city y storday, sage his party is certainly split in two, and he is afraid permanently. He thinks, however, that most of the negroes will vate the Mahone ticket. A well informed gentleman from Fatquier county who arrived in the city to day says that in one precinct in the lower part of that county where the Mahoneites one; had a large majority they will not poll fifteen votes at the next election; that Mr. John Wise's recont speech in Warrenton was made to not more than one hundred people, the larger portion of whom were democrats; that a performing bear, a short distance off, soon reduced the s z : of the crowd, by attracting all the negroes, and that the speech made many readjusters renounce Mahoneism. It is said that Cu peper is the district, but that se that county a few years ago gave Mr. Barbour seventeen hundred majority, it will be exceedingly strange if it does not give a majority for the ticket upon which Mr. Barbour is now running. Latters from Charlotte say that that county, as well as

The New Jersey authorities have waived all jurisdiction in the case, A leading lawser in this city said to day in reference to the doubt about obtaining a jury here, that he entertained no such doubt, as Guiteau's counsel would not deny the shooting but cadeavor to clear the defendant upon the ground of insanity, and that as regards that ground he did not tirithach company of U. AN EXPENSIVE PARASOL. - The late M. Blace once paid for a paragol for his wife the unusual sum of $18,200. The pair started from Wiesbaden ode summer merning to spend the day at Hamburg, and upon their arrival at that paradise of the green table Madam Blane discovered that she had left her parasol at name. She insisted that her husband should buy her a new one, and reluciantly enough he invested $16 in a parasol of great fashion and beauty. He determined to recoup himself for this extravagance at the tables, and walked into the room to trente et quarante, where half a dezen chairs were obsequiously proffered by the officials. He declined them all on the ground that as he only intended to remain at the table for a minute or two it would not be worth while to sit down. He then addressed himself to the enterprise of recovering the price of his wife's new parasol by setting two louis on the tlack. Without following the course of his losses it is enough to record the fast that his wile's forgetfulcess cost M. Blane the thousands mentioned above.

A Modzst Request .- "Darling, wake up and stop enoring," said a Detroit weman to her husband. "Eh? Whezz; matter con?" he arked as he halt raised up in bod.

"Won't you please stop scoring? If you only STAUNTON, Sept. 29-12 m.-Judge Chrise knew how home sick it made me I'm sure you would."

"Home sick? How the deuse can my innocent score make you home sick?" "Why, you know, darling, that the home on the coast from which you tock me a joyous bride was only half a mile from a Government loghorn, and every time you shore it remitd; me so of home that I just oan't stand it. Please lay on your side, and have some little respect for my feelings.'

And then the brute spread himself out on his brek and in five minutes had her bathed in tears as visions of the old home crept upon her.

How To KEEP A SITUATION. - Be ready to throw in an odd half hear or an hour's time, when it will be an accommodation, and don't seem to make a merit of it. Do it heartily. Though not a word be said, your employer will make a note of it. Make yourself indispensable to him, and he will less many of the opposite kind before he will part with you. These men or women who watch the clock to see the very second their working hour is up-who leave, no matter what state the work may be in, at the precise instant—who calculate the exact amount they can slight their work and not get removed, who are lavish of their employer,s goods-will be the first to receive nt. tion when times are dull, that their services are no longer required. - Ex.

AN OLD STORY .- The following incident in the life of the wit and orator, Tom Marshall of Kentucky is again going the rounds of the pa-

"I'om Marsball was engaged in the trial of a case in the interior of Kentucky, when a decision struck him as so bad that he arose and said: "There never was such ruling as that since Pontius Pilate presided over the trial of Christ

"Mr. Clerk," responded the judge "fine Mr. Marshall ten dollars for contempt of court." "I confess your honor," he continued that what I said was a little hard on Pontius Pilate but it is the first time in the history of Kentucky urisprudence that it is held that to speak dis respectfully of Pontius Pilate is contimpt of "Mr. Clerk, make it twenty for a continuous contempt," said the judge solemnly.

"Well judge," Marshall added, as you wor.
all my money last night at peker, lend me the

"Mr. Clerk" cried the judge hastily, "rem t the fine. The State can afford to loose the money better than I can " "I congratulate the court upon its same condition" said Marshall resuming his sentamid roars

A SWORDFISH IN LAKE HURON,-There is a fish curiosity contained in a cage at Canham & Armstrong's fish-house on the dock. It was caught in Lake Huron in a drag net with a quan at the head, and about an inch at the point. It is a deep water fish, but get into shallow water, where it mixed with the sturgeon and was caught. Old fishermen say that they have never seen anything like it.

A MOTHER REGAINING HER CHILD .- A secsation was caused in Buffalo on Tuesday by a young weman rushing into a barber shop and grabbing a child from the chair in which it was having its hair cut. The was immediately purhaving carried the child away, the mother took this course to recover it. There was no cou-plaint entered against Mrs. Murdock, and as she had violated no law in claiming her child, she was immediately discharged, and lett on the first Ever since I was seven years old I suffered with rhoumatism; especially when the westher changed I would get a pain in my loft knee, so that for hours I could not move a step. I used all sorts of remedies without avail, when I prooured St. Jacob's Oil which cared me.

DIED.

Just two weeks ago to-lay death stole away BESSIE, youngest daughter of Samuel C and Laura F. Johnson. Our little one was like a folded lity, sweeter than any on the szare wave But night come down-a starless night and chilly. Alasi we could not save her. We know we may not see thee here; thou art an angel now with harp tones sweiling soft and clear, and crown upon thy brow.

The tears fall warm and free; For all the joy thy being gave And all thou wast to me. For shadows resting coldly down, Where sunshine danced before, 'Tis I weet to know that thou art gone Where shadows fall no more. Now put away the little dresses

"And oft beside thy little grave

That our darling used to wear; She on earth ne'er more will need them-She bath climbed the golden stair. BY HER MOTHER [Wash, and New York papers please copy.]
